

The 9th Annual Try-It! Illinois October 1 through November 30, 2008

The Library is pleased to announce a two-month free access to Try-It! Illinois. This program is organized through the Secretary of State and State Librarian, Jesse White, and the Illinois State Library.

Try-It Illinois offers Illinois library users the opportunity to use a wide variety of databases for free. Students and faculty can access these sources for two months.

To access Try-It! Illinois go to <http://www.elillinois.org/tryit/>

Call the Phillips Library Information Desk at 630-844-7534 for the login and password to enter the Try-It! Illinois program and see the databases offered.

Each database has its own login and password. To access a database, click on the name of the database and follow the login instructions. For assistance, please contact the reference librarians at Phillips Library at 630-844-7534. We are happy to help you through a search.

Please let us know what you think and which databases you find of particular interest. Thank you for trying Try-It! Illinois!
